The Workshop is scheduled to be held on campus from June 6 to June 9.

Pat Evard Is President Of New Student Council

"Former Alumnus" Pat Evard ('54, now class of '56) is the new Student Council president. He ran unopposed for the office and now succeeds Joel Francoeur, who will graduate in June.

Other Student Council officers elected to serve with Evard are: Marvin Hackman, '56, of Jasper, Ind., as vice-president; Richard Flynn, '58, of Chicago, as secretary; and Tony Smith, '57, of Lakewood, Ohio, as treasurer.

The new president, a graduate of Cathedral High School in Indianapolis, first entered St. Joe's in the fall of 1950. In 1952 of that year, he was elected vice-president of the Student Council; but before he could assume his duties he was drafted into the U. S. Army.

Evard served in uniform from Sept. 1952 until July 1954, fifteen months of that time in Korea. Since his return to St. Joseph's last September, he has been active in many campus affairs and served as co-chairman of this year's Mardi Gras dance.

Class Reunions Are Slated for '38-'54 Alumni

A "Class Reunion Day," for all St. Joe Classes from 1938 to 1954, will be held on the campus Saturday, June 18, according to a schedule outlined by Hugh McAvoy, field secretary. It is planned to have reunions for older classes at a later date.

Registration will be conducted during the morning in the Merlini (formerly Noll) Hall lounge. There will be no fee for registration.

Highlights of the day are scheduled as follows: At 12:30 p. m., the alumni reunion luncheon by class will be held in the main dining room, while a buffet luncheon for alumni wives will be held in Raleigh Hall. The price for each will be $1.25.

At 6:30 p. m. will be the banquet for both alumni and wives, in the main dining room. The price for each will be $2.50.

At 8:30 p. m. a "cabaret party" will begin in Raleigh Hall, with an evening of music and entertainment. Bar service will be available. No admission charge will be made, each person paying only for his own drinks.

Housing, at $1.00 per person per night, will be available on campus for both men and women.

For reunion reservations, alumni should write to Hugh McAvoy, Alumni Office, St. Joseph's College, Collegeville, Ind.

Fund Appeal Brings in $6,725; Classes of '27 and '42 Leading

May 9—The 1955 Alumni Fund Appeal, now entering its eighth week, has provided a total of $6,725.00 toward the future development of St. Joseph's College.

Altogether, 351 alumni have contributed to date.

Foundation Director Fr. John Lefko said today that contributions are still coming in at a gratifying rate. Class managers are now writing to groups of their friends who, although not always actual classmates, were in college at the same time.

"It is never too late to send in your contribution," said Fr. Lefko. "And we want all alumni to believe that the amount they send does not matter nearly as much as the actual percentage of participation."

"Alumni participation is closely watched by a number of foundations and corporations—if we expect support from them, the alumni must show that they too are willing to help in the advancement of their alma mater."

Dollar-wise, the classes of 1927 and 1942 are ahead; each has

Officers to Be Elected By Mail Balloting

The ballot on page four of this issue is for the use of all alumni in electing their national officers.

Various other Glee Club appearances, all under the direction of Fr. Lawrence Heiman, were made April 25 and 26 in Celina, Ohio, Fort Wayne, Ind., and Glandorf, Ohio. The concert chorus, composed of both Glee Club and Choir, sang the Magnificat to conclude the Pontifical Mass at the College on Dedication day, April 27.

The first performance, April 7, ended the Dedication Day festivities. Following it were performances on April 30 and May 1. The latter was part of the many activities celebrating Parents Day.

Especially singled out for plaudits was the work of Gerald Gladu, senior from Kankakee, Ill., who portrayed Elwood P. Dowd. The entire cast was generally thought to be well chosen and directed.

Next year's plans for the Columbian Players include three major productions, including possibly Cyrano de Bergerac and Julius Caesar.

Scharf Resigns From Coaching

Dick Scharf, '38, who is completing his fifteenth year as an athletic coach at St. Joseph's College, has asked to be relieved from his position as head basketball coach in order to devote full-time to teaching at St. Joseph's and in continuance of graduate study.

A former athletic star on the Puma teams during his college career, Mr. Scharf joined the faculty and coaching staff in 1940. He had served as head football and baseball coach before taking over the basketball coaching in 1950.

Mr. Scharf was chosen as Indiana Collegiate Conference Coach of the Year in 1953, when his team was crowned co-champions of the conference.

The resignation has been accepted, but no announcement has been made as to his successor.

Record Droops As Pumas Fight Weather, Foes

May 10—Fighting a tough schedule and a tough weatherman throughout the first six weeks of the season, Coach Jim Beane's Pumas have compiled a 6-3 record, with five other games being cancelled because of rain.

After sweeping double-headers from Franklin College and Chicago University, St. Joe had their four-game winning streak snapped on a southern road trip by Indiana State, 6-1. The next day, the Pumas split with Evansville, losing the first game 8-4 but winning the second 4-2 with four runs in the final inning. A home run by Bob Wasni started the winning rally.

Freshman Bob Valencik collected five hits in seven tries in the Evansville games.

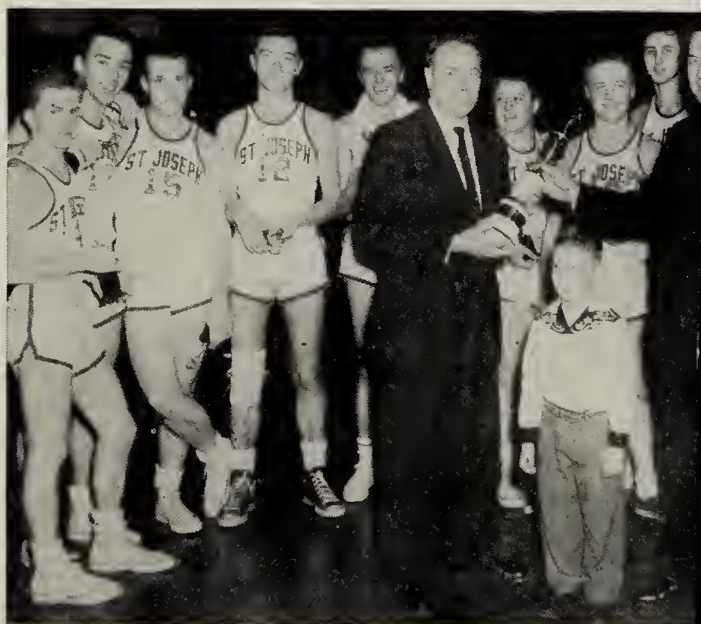

St. Joe thrilled a home crowd on May 3 by nipping DePauw's Tigers 6-5 with a two-run rally in the ninth inning. A triple by Bob Hamman and a single by Jim Gatzka were the big hits in the inning.

Valparaiso's Crusaders stopped St. Joe 2-1 in 15 innings on May 4, after the Pumas tied the game in the ninth inning. A return contest with Valpo was rained out today. The Valpo loss gave St. Joe a 2-3 record in the Indiana Collegiate Conference and left little hope of repeating as baseball champions.

In the pitching department, Greg Jancich and Dick Dwinell have identical 2-1 records, while Joe Horney and Paul Gatzka each have a victory. Gatzka picked up the loss in the Valpo game.

DePauw and Indiana State will furnish ICC competition for St. Joe Friday and Saturday. The Pumas then play four games in two days, with double-headers against Chicago on May 17 and Ball State on May 18. Single games with Indiana Central on May 21 and Lewis on May 22 will round out the season.

Spring Sports Teams Face Active Weekend

RECENTLY CROWNED CHAMPIONS of the eighth annual Midlands College are the members of St. Joseph's extramural basketball team. Fr. Bcanc, '49; David Beane (probably '71); and the Rev. Louis Ernsdorff. Second row: Fred Sierakowski, '57; Tom Yonke, '58; Pete Fenlon, '55; Bob Companik, '56; Bob Valencik, '58; Joe Horney, '57; Ron Giometti, '57.

Scheidlers Furnish Room in Bennett Hall

Four brothers of Fr. Albin Scheidler, '05, and their families will furnish one of the counselors' rooms in the new Bishop Bennett Hall in honor of Fr. Scheidler, a widely respected alumnus.

A plaque on the door will state that the gift was made "for his 27 years of devoted service to St. Joseph's College."

Participating in the donation are the following men and their families: Benno Scheidler of Attica, Ind.; Matt Scheidler of Hartford City, Ind.; Will Scheidler of Greensburg, Ind., and John Scheidler of Frankfort, Ind.

Give in Memory Of Brother Henry

One of the residence rooms of Bishop Bennett Hall will be furnished in memory of Brother Henry Olberding, C.P.P.S., through the contribution of a friend of his and of the College.

Kirby Risk, of the Kirby Risk Supply Company, Lafayette, Ind., was the donor.

Writes Mr. Risk: "I am sure Brother Henry would have been pleased with (the idea) of furnishing one of the rooms in the new Bishop Bennett Hall. I am delighted with the idea and particularly pleased that you have chosen Bishop Bennett Hall, as I hold Bishop Bennett in very high esteem, not only as an admirable leader of your church but as a very generous and public spirited citizen of our community."

Students to Compete For Conroy Award

Eleven first-year speech students will be competing May 26 for the annual Conroy Award.

Last year, Fr. James Conroy, '32, provided that a gold medal be awarded yearly to the winner of St. Joseph's first-year speech contest. The custom was started many years ago by his uncle, the late Msgr. Thomas M. Conroy.

Both Fathers Conroy have been particularly interested, among their many interests, in developing a "more articulate Catholic laity."

The May 26 contest is scheduled to begin at 7:30 p. m. It will be held in the College auditorium.

JAMES A. FARLEY, who will become an honorary alumnus of St. Joseph's on June 5. Mr. Farley has been, during his full and varied career, postmaster-general of the United States and chairman of the Democratic National Committee. He still holds many important public and business positions, including the chairmanship of the Coca Cola Export Corporation. Mr. Farley, who received on May 4, 1955, the Cross of Isabel la Catolica from the Spanish government, will deliver the Commencement address at St. Joseph's and receive an honorary Doctor of Laws degree.

Junior Prom Expected To Attract 220 Couples

May 9—With Ralph Marterie and his Downbeat Orchestra as the big drawing card, ticket sales for the 1955 Junior Prom on May 14 have mounted at a record pace, according to class officials.

A total of 108 tickets were sold on April 19, the day sales began, and the strong demand has continued. Plans have been made to seat approximately 220 couples.

A capacity crowd is also expected for the Revels, which will be held on Friday night in Raleigh Hall.

Decorating of the gym for the main event was held back somewhat because of the fieldhouse Mass on Dedication Day, but the work is now nearly complete. The Prom theme is "Southern Enchantment."

The association includes all colleges of Indiana with the exception of the four state-supported schools. Members meet several times each year to discuss common problems.

Xavier Students Produce Drama

The Xavierites have revived "The Curtain Club" with their production of Command Decision. The three-act play was presented in theater-in-the-round at Raleigh Hall on Easter Monday night.

Directed and produced under the supervision of Faculty Member Willard Walsh and Xavier Student Joseph Rodak, the drama was enthusiastically received by the small but "select" audience. The performance will be repeated as a part of the Summer School program of activities and for the Xavier Hall Parents Weekend.

Donald Moorman, a freshman from Minster, Ohio, filled the leading role of Brig. Gen. Dennis. He was assisted by Leonard Mizey, a special student from Milwaukee, Wis., who played the role of Brig. Gen. Garnett, and by Thomas Burke, a sophomore from New York, who portrayed Major Gen. Kane, and a cast of 13 others.

Mr. Henry, the father of one SJC alumnus and the uncle of two others, had operated the Charles M. Henry Electric Company for the past 28 years. Since 1936 he had done a large share of the electrical contracting for St. Joseph's.

Among the many surviving relatives are Jerome F. (Jerry) Henry, '49, a son, now of Jackson, Mich.; Fr. Charles Banet, '50, a nephew, of Collegeville; and Fr.
